New CITY ADMINISTRATOR SEARCH

A Billings City Council subcommittee met on May 23, to review proposals from firms vying to recruit the next City Administrator.

Mayor Tom Hanel and Council Members Larry Brewster, Angela Cimmino, Richard Clark and Chris Friedel will continue work on replacing the current City Administrator, Tina Volek, who will retire when her contract expires at the end of September after nearly 13 years serving the Magic City. Volek holds the distinction of being the longest-serving Administrator in Billings' history and will be difficult to replace.

Eleven firms from across the country responded to a request for proposals for the executive search process. Tasks that the successful firm likely will undertake include developing a recruitment campaign, conducting and reporting on preliminary candidate screening, facilitating interviews, and assisting the City in developing an employment offer for the successful candidate.

The committee narrowed the field down to three proposals and approved a timeline for selecting a consultant to help with the search. They forwarded their recommendation for an executive search firm to the entire City Council at the June 5 work session and approved a contract with the Mercer Group at the June 12 business meeting. Under the timeline, the new administrator could be selected by about Halloween, but might not be in place until Thanksgiving or later.

City of Billings W.O. 17-01, Schedule 3 6th Avenue North Water & Sewer Main Replacement Project

Treatment Court Participants Prep Community Garden

It's 9 a.m. on April 26 ... 38 degrees, overcast with occasional snowflakes followed by an ongoing downpour of rain. Not ideal conditions for gardening in most parts of the country.

But in Billings, Montana, 25 treatment court participants converge on the City of Billings' Amend Park Community Garden to serve our community and think spring.

Billings Municipal Court offers three treatment courts (Drug, DUI and Co-Occurring).

Treatment court is alternative sentencing for offenders who are committed to a rigorous program that includes months of chemical dependency treatment, court-ordered classes, self-help group attendance, probation oversight, and drug/alcohol testing.

Research shows that those who complete the 12 to 16-month program are less likely to recidivate, and they report positive outcomes that impact their careers, quality of life and family connections.

Most Wednesdays, treatment court participants meet individually before Judge Kolar who presides over treatment court. Typically once per quarter, participants take time away from the courtroom to perform a service project to give back to our community.

Chris Waite, Billings Parks and Recreation volunteer coordinator, and AmeriCorps Vista's Lillian Muecke, oversaw the project and kept everyone engaged with various garden prep activities.

New Municipal Court Grant Funds

Billings Co-Occurring Court is one of only two co-occurring courts in the state; the other is Missoula.

The court launched in October 2016 through a $349,253 Bureau of Justice Assistance grant.

The three-year grant provides services to 60 offenders (felonies or misdemeanors) with severe, disabling mental illness and chemical dependency addiction. The target population has a high risk for reoffending and a high need for concentrated services and sustained interventions.

Community partnerships with Mental Health Center, Rimrock and National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) are key to the program's effectiveness.

Treatment will exponentially reduce the likelihood of recidivism and contribute to stable lifestyles, which enhance community safety.

Turn Trash into Trees Program

RECYCLES PAPER AND ALUMINUM

Billings has had a "Turn Trash into Trees" program since 1980. In those "olden" days, community residents would save up a six-month supply of newspapers and aluminum cans and, twice a year, gather to combine their assemblage of small piles into one BIG PILE that was shipped off to a recycling center and redeemed for cash used to buy trees for city parks.

In 1998, the last of the bi-annual recycling parties on behalf of trees was held and in its stead bins were set out so that citizen-recyclers could drop off their accumulated abundance when it was convenient for them, avoiding storage problems at home and providing a more even flow of income to the Urban Forestry Division.

Since 1980 more than 3.9 million pounds of newspapers and 68 tons of aluminum have passed through these bins, providing more than $112,000 in revenue used to buy and plant nearly 2200 trees – about 20 percent of all Park trees!

This revenue is more important than ever today because 20-30 percent of trees in Billings are ash (Fraxinus), all of which could be lost to the Emerald Ash Borer (EAB). Planting trees that are not affected by the EAB will help us minimize the impact of EAB when/if it arrives and maintain continued green and shade as adapt to its presence.

"Turn Trash into Trees" bins are located at Veterans and Castle Rock Parks and in the Lowe's parking lot at 2717 King Ave W. Remember to recycle ONLY newspaper and aluminum at these bins.

For a recent article on EAB effects of EAB to urban forests please see: <http://www.startribune.com/minneapolis-and-st-paul-are-losing-thousands-of-trees-to-emerald-ash-borer/421687683/> With planning, the EAB arrival to Billings can be as much of a non-event as Y2K was to Armageddon and all we have to do to make it so is turn our trash into trees.

A "TURN-TRASH-INTO-TREES" BIN AS IT LOOKS TODAY AFTER 19 YEARS OF RUGGED USE. ALL BINS WILL BE GETTING A "FACELIFT" THIS SUMMER. KEEP A WATCH OUT FOR THEIR NEW LOOK!
