Public Comment
Purcell expressed concern over the behavior of some of the individuals visiting the Library. He suggested that:
- A breathalyzer be used at the entrances of the Library.
- A community wide effort be made to establish a place for the homeless to go other than the Library.
- Limit cell phone use in certain areas of the Library.

Fong thanked Purcell for his comments.

Chair’s comments
Fong noted that:
- There were great events coming up - Civil Conversations Part II.
- The Board did a great job handing the challenged materials at the January Board meeting.

Consent Agenda
MOTION: Approve consent agenda. Lamdin/Quinn

- Woltjer noted that he will present the Strategic Plan.
- Darby asked for a copy of the plan prior to the retreat.
- Darby asked for options for implementing the Strategic Plan.
- Woltjer suggested reviewing the mission statement.
- Mickelson asked what the Library needs in the future. A wish list.
- Mickelson asked that the Library statistics be reviewed.
- Fong asked for miscellaneous facts about Library issues.
- Lamdin asked to discuss Library security and suggested inviting a Resource Officer to talk to the Board.

MLA Conference and Continuing Education Credits
Woltjer noted that the Library will pay the conference registration for any Board Trustees that would like to attend the conference.
Policy Updates Discussion
Woltjer reviewed the Library Policy updates.

Motion: Move to approve the Policy updates.

Approved.                     Mickelson/Quinn

Library Foundation Funding Process
Modrow reported that:
  • The Foundation’s distribution policy to the Library is 2% of their endowment and that the funds are unrestricted.
  • The Library can request an additional 1.5% for special projects.
  • The Foundation also secures grants for the Library throughout the year.
