

Billings City Administration Weekly Report

October 4, 2019

- 1) Montana League of Cities & Towns 88th Annual Conference – Denise’s entourage of cronies pulled off the best MLCT Conference ever to be hosted in the best city in the northern hemisphere. Over 400 attendees were treated to a lineup of incredibly informative speakers including Billings own excellent teacher on effective communication - Tim Pollard. Tim is one of the most effective teachers I have ever heard and he calls Billings home. God parted the clouds just minutes before we walked through the gates of Montana’s recently accredited zoo. The wolverines stole the show! Last night we had an awesome urban experience at The Depot. Make sure to mark your calendar for the 2026 MLCT conference in beautiful downtown Billings.

- 2) Laredo Place Rock-Slide – The RFP (request for proposal) process is on track and will go out early next week. Proposals are due back to the city October 18. I met with the neighborhood Tuesday evening. Our next neighborhood meeting will be on Wednesday October 16th at 6:00 PM on Laredo place immediately east of the rock-slide.
