MOTION: Approve consent agenda
Approved        Lamdin/Richardson

Library Board Retreat
The Library Board developed the following agenda for the Board retreat scheduled for November 17 from 9 am to 4 pm at Crowley Fleck Law Firm.
• Interlocal agreement
• Bylaws including parliamentary procedure
• Strategic Plan review
• New Library building
  o Naming
  o Security
• Programming
• Services
• Security

Library Branding Project
Cochran distributed copies of the FY13 supplemental budget request for $18,000 for a branding project.

Nault noted that the Library Branding Committee meetings discussed at the September board meeting fall under the open meeting law which requires that the meetings be open to the public and be advertised for two weeks prior to the meeting date. To allow sufficient time for the notice process it was decided that the next meeting would be held November 2 at 1:30 pm. Nault noted that a scope statement for the project would be developed at the next meeting.
Cochran requested that Murphrey be added as a committee member. Nault noted that the committee members now include Nault, Hudson, Mickelson, Quinn, Richardson, Redman, Murphrey, Mona Harris, Leslie Modrow, Cara Schaer, Evelyn Noenning, Stella Fong, Sarah Keller and David Schaer.

MOTION: Approve the committee members.
Approved       Lamdin/Martin

Nault distributed a copy of a draft letter requesting that the Library Foundation table re-naming the Library as part of its enhancement campaign for the new Library and asked for a recommendation to finalize and mail the letter to the Library Foundation.

MOTION: Proceed with sending the letter to the Foundation
Approved       Lamdin/Richardson

High Plains Book Awards
Redman reported that the BookFest will be held October 19, followed by an Author Reception to be held at 5:00 pm at the Babcock Arcade. She noted that the Awards Banquet will be held on October 20 at 6:00 pm at the Yellowstone Art Museum and that Tom McGuane will receive the Emeritus Award this year.

Nault noted that a table has been dedicated for Library Board members should they wish to attend.
