 Midtown Community Meeting — Be Part of the Conversation

A strong community starts with people who show up and speak honestly about what's working and what isn't. If concerns stay quiet, they stay unsolved. This meeting is your chance to share input, hear updates, and help guide the future of Midtown alongside your neighbors.

 Community Topics We're Focusing On:

 Neighborhood Communication

- We're working on better ways to keep residents informed and connected:
- Updates on a Midtown newsletter
- Building a shared information hub for community resources
- Improving how meeting information and updates are shared

 Community Support & Outreach

- Midtown is stronger when everyone knows where to turn for help:
- Discussing outreach programs and available resources
- Identifying gaps in community support
- Exploring ways neighbors can support one another

 Community Connection

- Building relationships matters just as much as infrastructure:
- Ideas for future community gatherings and events
- Creating opportunities for neighbors to connect and collaborate
